Taiwan Aborigine Choir, also known as the Christian Mountain Children's Home Choir, was established in May of '98. Most members hail from aborigine tribes in the highlands. Rev. David Kou trained the Children's Choir in the Italian Bel Canto style along with his own vocalization techniques. Since its inception in 1998, the choir has not only performed throughout Taiwan, but also traveled to Hong Kong, Macao, Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Korea, the Philippines, Norway, Mainland China, Canada and the U.S. This year marks their 10th North America tour, in which they will witness for the Lord through their testimonies and songs.

REPERTOIRE INCLUDES

Selections from the three great oratorios
Folk songs, lieder, and songs from musicals
Gospel songs and worshipful arias
With their pure and bright voices the choir will present masterpieces old and new.
